Authority to interview the subject is denied. You do not know the subject's employment for the past three years, nor the subject's marital status. It seems unlikely that the subject would devote so much time to Communist causes if he were not a member of the Communist Party. Therefore, prior to considering an interview of this subject a more intensive investigation is suggested in an effort to establish if the subject is or has been a Communist Party member. You should recontact informants previously requested to furnish information on this subject and make an effort to develop new sources who would be in a position to furnish information to you concerning his activities.

Upon completion of this additional investigation, you may wish to request again authority for an interview.

SECURITY MATTER - C

EX-125

Reur FD-122 dated 11/30/55 recommending that subject be placed on the Security Index.

A review of this case reflects that the subject has never been identified as a member of a basic revolutionary organization. Subject has been active in several Communist front organizations as recently as 1953; however, such activity has not been in a leadership capacity within the past three years.

In view of the above, subject does not meet the criteria for inclusion on the Security
Index set forth in SAC Letter 55-30.

In the event you receive additional information which would bring this subject within the criteria set forth in SAC Letter 55-30, you should,
of course, appropriately advise the Bureau.

In the future when recommending an individual for inclusion on the Security Index, you should be guided by instructions contained in Section 87D of the Manual of Instructions which state that a summary report should be submitted when initially recommending a subject for inclusion on the Security Index.

Re: Julian Hudson Mayfield

During his campaign for election as District Attorney of New York County in the November 3, 1953, New York election, George Blake Charney publically stated on radio and television that he was Trade Union Secretary of the New York State CP and was recently convicted for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. Charney stated he was the only candidate of the People's Rights Party during the election.

New York T-15, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 29, 1957, that George Blake Charney is Executive Secretary of the New York State CP.

The "Daily Worker" edition of May 29, 1953, on page 7, column 1, contained an article which stated that Julian Mayfield was a speaker at a rally called in the defense of V.J. Jerome.

Victor Jeremy Jerome was one of the CP leaders convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on January 21, 1953, for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. He was subsequently incarcerated in Federal Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He was released from prison on May 17, 1957, on conditional release, to June 28, 1957, at which time his sentence for violation of the Smith Act of 1940, was completed.

New York T-5, previously mentioned, advised on May 28, 1958, that Victor Jeremy Jerome had stated he would be asked to serve on a sub-committee of the CP National Committee.

New York T-16, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 16, 1958, furnished information which reflected that Comrade V.J. Jerome was made secretary of the sub-committee to work with the National Commission for Jewish Work, CP, USA.

New York T-17, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in June, 1950, that Paul Robeson was known to him as a concealed Communist in the years prior to 1945.

APPENDIX

MOVIMIENTO PRO INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO
(Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR)

A confidential source advised on January 31, 1959, that the MPIPR was formed at a meeting of former leaders of the PARTIDO INDEPENDENTISTA PUERTORRIQUEÑO (Puerto Rican Independence Party) (PIP), a former legally constituted political party, in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, on January 11, 1959, as a result of discussions by various PIP members who were dissatisfied with the PIP and who desired to form a more active organization. The announced purpose of the MPIPR was to work for the complete independence of Puerto Rico through propaganda and other peaceful means. The source advised that no information had come to his attention indicating that the MPIPR advocated the use of violence as a means of obtaining independence for Puerto Rico.

On June 20, 1960, JUAN MARI BRAS, Secretary General of the MPIPR, furnished the following information to Special Agents of the FBI:

Speaking on behalf of himself and his organization, MARI BRAS stated that the MPIPR does not currently advocate violence as a method of obtaining Puerto Rico's independence only because he feels violence would be ineffective against the force of the United States Government. MARI BRAS believes in the right of a people, specifically the Puerto Rican people, to use violence to obtain their freedom if and when the circumstances are such that they could possibly be successful in their effort.

MARI BRAS stated this same philosophy when he was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI in March, 1944, subsequent to the NATIONALIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO (NPPR) shooting in the United States Congress. MARI BRAS feels great pride and admiration for those Nationalists who have given their lives for their country.

The MPIPR General Secretariat and Directive Mission are made up of leaders of the independence movement in Puerto Rico and include leaders from other groups seeking independence for Puerto Rico, including the NPPR.

The NPPR has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The above sources was in a position to furnish accurate information regarding the organization, aims and purposes of the MPIPR.

The "Philadelphia Afro-American", a publication of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, dated July 29, 1961, page 4, column 4, reflected an article written for that publication by one JULIAN MANFIELD, no further identifying information, which identified ROBERT F. WILLIAMS as one of the 30 founding members of the FPCC. The writer requested in his article that all FPCC members and supporters should send financial help to WILLIAMS. It was pointed out therein that WILLIAMS had suggested that Afro-Americans actively resist racist attacks, for which he was suspended as President of the Union County (North Carolina) National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), but that support he received led to his reinstatement. This article further stated that WILLIAMS would fight with arms, if necessary, to secure justice for himself and his children.

"The New York Times", a daily publication in New York City, dated April 6, 1960, contains an advertisement, "What's Really Happening in Cuba?" by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Box T249 Times, New York, which contradicts numerous statements made in United States newspapers regarding CASTRO. The advertisement, which defends FIDEL CASTRO, Prime Minister of Cuba, reflects a list of sponsors, which includes the name of the subject.

A characterization of the FPCC appears in the Appendix section of this report.

Activities Conducted by Subject on Behalf of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and Racial Struggle in North Carolina

City to raise money for guns for the "Black Freedom Fighters of Monroe, North Carolina". It was further reflected in this article, that the subject addressed the a meeting, discussing the racial struggle conducted by WILLIAMS in Monroe, North Carolina.

The Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On July 10, 1961, NY T-1 advised that an unknown Negro organization planned to hold a meeting that evening at 310 Lenox Avenue, New York City. One of the speakers was to be the subject. A collection was to be taken up at this meeting and the money was to be used to buy weapons for the militant anti-segregationists in the South.

On July 11, 1961, this source advised that the meeting held on July 10, 1961, was under the name of Afro-American Alliance for Action. According to the source this name was just utilized for the purpose of this particular meeting as he had never heard of it before. The source observed a number of people in attendance, who, he believed were connected with the On Guard Committee for Freedom group.

A characterization of the On Guard Committee for Freedom appears in the Appendix section of this report.

"The Militant", dated July 24 and 31, 1961, in an article captioned, "New Challenge Faces NAACP Leadership" refers to an article written by subject in another publication, in which subject poses the possibility that the increasingly dynamic civil rights struggle will necessitate the replacement of present leaders by other young men and women like ROBERT WILLIAMS of Monroe, North Carolina "who have concluded that the only way to win a revolution is to be a revolutionary".

"The Militant", is a weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) which was been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NY T-2 advised on August 24, 1961, that an announcement was made at a meeting of the SWP, New York Local, held on August 10, 1961, in New York City, that the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) was going to have a forum on September 8, at which the subject would be the speaker. According to the informant, the purpose of this forum was to help raise funds for ROBERT WILLIAMS, with some of this money going towards the purchase of guns for WILLIAMS in the South.

A characterization of the YSA appears in the Appendix section of this report.

NY T-3 advised on August 30, 1961, that the subject, a friend of ROBERT WILLIAMS, was scheduled to speak at a forum, previously mentioned, which would be held at Adelphi Hall, New York City, on September 8, 1961. According to the informant, the topics of the subject's discussion would be the "Attempted Assassination of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS" and the "Crisis of Negro Leadership."

On August 21, 1961, ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS and his associates kidnaped at gun point two white persons in Monroe, North Carolina and held them as hostages at his (WILLIAMS') residence for approximately two hours before releasing them.

The Grand Jury, Monroe, North Carolina, returned two true bill on August 28, 1961, charging WILLIAMS with two counts of kidnaping. An authorized complaint was filed with the United States Commissioner at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging WILLIAMS with violation of Title 18, Section 1073, in that he unlawfully fled from the State of North Carolina to avoid prosecution for the crime of kidnaping.

A Federal warrant was issued on August 28, 1961, at Charlotte, charging him with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for kidnaping.

NY T-4 advised on September 25, 1961, that the SWP was quietly supporting the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants. According to the informant, the Party set out a statement of the situation and circumstances in Monroe, North Carolina, that led to the kidnaping charge against WILLIAMS and others. The SWP requested all Negro comrades to get "sponsors" for the movement who could later be organized into an action committee.

According to this informant, the FPCC was also quietly supporting the Monroe Aid Committee which was to be called the Monroe Defense Committee. The informant advised that the subject and [redacted] were included as backers of this Committee. The informant felt that there were actually three Monroe committees in addition to the committees previously mentioned. There was also a group led by the "On Guard for Freedom" group which uses the same address as the FPCC group at 53 West 125th Street, New York City.

The "National Guardian", dated September 25, 1961, page 5, reflected an advertisement placed by the Monroe Defense Committee, in which the subject is listed as one of the sponsors of this Committee.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the FPCC. This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times."

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The first issue of "Freedomways," spring, 1961, is self-described as a quarterly review of the Negro freedom movement published by Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 25, 1961, a confidential source advised that "Freedomways" was set up by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee, CPUSA, for the CP of the United States with the approval of the CP of the Soviet Union.

On May 24, 1961, another confidential source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

A confidential source advised on February 15, 1961, that the "On Guard Committee for Freedom" (OGCFF) was formed on February 14, 1961, in the Harlem section of New York City. Its purpose was to avenge the death of PATRICE LUMUMBA and the fathers and mothers of slaves killed in the past.

"The New York Times", issue of March 1, 1961, on page twenty-five, commented that CALVIN L. HICKS, a newspaper writer, who is editor of a six-page newspaper, is associated with the OGCFF. The tabloid edited by him has favored the LUMUMBA and CASTRO regimes and has called on President KENNEDY to aid "Afro-American" families in Tennessee while asserting the U.S. was subsidizing Cubans in Florida.

A second confidential source on February 29, 1956, furnished information that [] was at that time a member of a Communist Party cell in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The May, 1961 edition of "On Guard," official organ of the OGCFF, on page two, stated that the purpose of the OGCFF was "to act as an educational and action organization. To inspire our people to united mass action on issues affecting their rights and opportunities. To expose those agents and agencies representative of government who violate those principles and documents upon which this country was founded." The above editorial contained in part, "In order to implement the above-mentioned principles, OGCFF shall advocate and make use of the picket line, the boycott, the petition forums and mass circulation of 'On Guard', our monthly newspaper."

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member [redacted], known in the SWP as [redacted], split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of Leon Trotsky and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery-individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates the unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party (WWP).

On May 4, 1961, the source stated that Headquarters of the WWP were located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS) page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 3, 1961, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised that the YSA is dominated and controlled in its leadership and ranks by members of the SWP. The source added that the SWP considers the YSA as a training ground for hard-core SWP leadership activity and as its current and future hope for recruits and the promulgation of the SWP movement throughout the United States.

The headquarters of the YSA are located at 10 East 23rd Street, New York City.

The YS is a monthly publication, self-described in the May, 1961 issue as the official organ of the YSA.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[] stated that at the time the aforementioned announcement was made to the FPCC banquet he was engrossed in preparing and arranging his camera equipment, and therefore, did not see either one of the named individuals stand up. He said it was even possible that one or even both of these individuals were absent inasmuch as he personally saw neither one stand up because of his preoccupation with his camera equipment. However, [] reiterated that he positively did hear the names JULIAN MAYFIELD and WARREN MILLER announced as co-authors of the FPCC advertisement in the 4/21/61 edition of the "New York Times." [] was therefore unable to make any identification from the photos of MAYFIELD and MILLER which were exhibited to him.

The same photographs of JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD and WARREN WOLFE MILLER were exhibited on 5/19/61 to [] who also attended the FPCC banquet on 4/28/61. [] stated that he has no recollection of MAYFIELD and MILLER being announced as co-authors of the FPCC advertisement. The informant said that if such an announcement was made he was either momentarily out of the banquet hall when it was made or it was made prior to his arrival at the banquet. [] added, however, that he did observe an individual at the FPCC banquet who closely resembles the photograph of WARREN WOLFE MILLER, but the informant stated that he could not make a positive identification. [] said he does not recall seeing anyone resembling the photograph of JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD.

With regard to WARREN MILLER the following is to be noted:

[] NYC, advised SA [] on 10/19/60, that the subscriber to telephone number SU 7-1503 is WARREN MILLER, 36 West 86th St., NYC. [] stated that the telephone contact was made on 4/7/60, and that MILLER was self described as a self employed writer. [] said that MILLER identified his bank:

NY 97-1792

as the Chase Manhattan Bank, Fifth Avenue and 14th Street Branch, NYC. (Same bank utilized by FPCC). [] also advised that the telephone number SU 7-1503 carries an additional listing for one [], not further identified.

dated January 2, 1957, and prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, stated:

"1. Cited as the successor to New Masses, "a Communist magazine."

"(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1953 on the Congress of American Women, April 26, 1950, originally released, October 23, 1949, p. 75; also cited in House Report 1694 on Organized Communism in the United States, May 28, 1954, originally released August 19, 1953, p. 98.)"

The January 1949, issue of "Masses and Mainstream" described Warren Miller as "a young Iowa writer now living in New York" and a contributor to the magazine.

Articles written by Warren Miller appeared in the January, 1949, issue of "Masses and Mainstream". They consisted of comparisons of foreign films and United States films. They dealt mostly with the point that United States films lack the reality that foreign films contain. Other film reviews, book reviews or short stories by Warren Miller may be found in the following issues of "Masses and Mainstream":

"Fraternal Outlook", March, 1949, page 9, the official publication of the International Workers Order (IWO), contained a review by Warren Miller of the film "The Quiet One" which was filmed in Harlem, New York City.

The IWO has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker" of May 30, 1950, page 10, column 2, contained a notice that the film "Shors", a Soviet film, was being shown at Yugoslav Hall in New York City, sponsored by the John Reed Club. The introductory speeches were to be made by Warren Miller, Film Critic of "Masses and Mainstream" and Jose Iglesias of the "Daily Worker".

Concerning the John Reed Clubs of the United States the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, dated January 2, 1957, and prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, stated:

"(1) Cited as organizations "whose affiliation with the CP is clear beyond dispute."

Page 30 of the November, 1950, issue of "Jewish Life" contains a review by Warren Miller of the film "Distant Journey" a Czechoslovakian picture.

Concerning "Jewish Life" the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, dated January 2, 1957, and prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives stated:

"(1) Cited as a Communist front which first appeared in November, 1946, as a monthly published by the Morning Freiheit Association, publishers of the Yiddish Communist Daily 'Morning Freiheit'.....The first issue contained this announcement of policy: 'Jewish Life' dedicates itself to strengthening the friendship of the Jewish people with the Soviet Union.....'.

"(Committee on Un-American Activities Report 'Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell', August 25, 1956, p.93)".

Column 2, page 7, of August 19, 1953, edition of the "Daily Worker" contains an article captioned "3 United States Youths Win Prizes in Music, Literature, in Fete at Bucharest" by David Platt. This article reports that in the International Cultural Competitions at the Fourth World Youth Festival held at Bucharest, Rumania, Warren Miller of New York City, received an award of honor for his short story "Baptism" which originally appeared in "Masses and Mainstream".

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

Julian Hudson Mayfield

On page 7, column 3, of the August 2, 1951 edition of the "Daily Worker" there appears an article which identified Julian Mayfield as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York City.

The Committee for the Negro in the Arts has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The February 9, 1953, issue of the "Daily Worker", on page 6, column 2, reflects under the heading "What's On" that Julian Mayfield was to direct the play "The Big Deal" for "fund raising". The term "fund raising" was not further described.

The July 24, 1950, issue of the "Daily Worker", on page 8, column 2, reflects under an article captioned "100 Negro Leaders Hit Intervention in Korea with War for Slavery", that Julian Mayfield was listed as one of more than 100 American Negro Leaders denouncing American intervention in Korea as part of an attempt to have the "United States replace Europe in the enslavement of Asia and Africa."

The May 27, 1952, issue of the "Daily Worker" on page 8, column 2, reflects under an article captioned "Mother of POW to speak at Peace Fete Tomorrow" that a Peace Festival was to be held on May 28, 1952 for the purpose of demonstrating dissatisfaction in the handling of the prisoner of war issue and the call for a truce in Korea and an immediate end of warfare.

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

According to the article, Julian Mayfield was scheduled to participate in the affair.

An article captioned "Negro Theatre Group's Powerful Play Against Witch Hunting" appearing in the September 26, 1952 issue of the "Daily Worker" on page 7, column 1 through 3, reflects that a play entitled "Alice in Wonderland" was being presented at the Elks Community Theatre by two individuals, one of whom was Julian Mayfield. The play was described as follows:

"It is the story of a husband and wife, he a noted singer, she a gifted actress, and of the moral crises in their lives brought about by the talent "Witch Hunting Hysteria".

On page 7, of the "Daily Worker", February 11, 1953 edition, there appears an article which reflects that Julian Mayfield appeared in a play under the auspices of Civil Rights Congress (CRC).

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Page 7, column 1, of the May 29, 1953 edition of the "Daily Worker" reflects that Julian Mayfield was a speaker at a rally called in the defense of V. J. Jerome.

V. J. Jerome was one of the CP leaders convicted in United States District Court Southern District of New York, on January 21, 1953 for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. He was subsequently incarcerated in Federal Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He was released from prison on May 17, 1957, on conditional release, to June 28, 1957, at which time his sentence for violation of the Smith Act of 1940 was completed.

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

The "Daily Worker" edition of July 1, 1953, on page 8, contained an advertisement to announce that Julian Mayfield was a staff leader on the Camp Unity Interracial Gala Program featuring a musical review from July 3 to July 5, 1953.

Concerning Camp Unity (Wingdale, New York), the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, dated January 2, 1957, and prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives stated:

"1. Cited as a "notorious Communist rendezvous"**.

"(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1945 HR 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956 p.p. 9 and 10)."

The "Daily Worker" of May 25, 1954, on page 3, column 1, announced that a "Cultural Salute to Paul Robeson" would be held on May 26, 1954 at 8 PM at the Renaissance Casino, 138th Street at Seventh Avenue, New York City in support of the restoration of Robeson's passport. The article stated that the program was to be directed by Julian Mayfield who was described as a rising young negro actor and playwright."

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised in June, 1950, that Paul Robeson was known to him prior to 1945 as a concealed Communist.

The "New York Times" newspaper, Late City Edition, April 6, 1960, contains an advertisement "What is Really Happening in Cuba?" by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee,

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

Box T249 Times, New York, which contradicts numerous statements made in United States newspapers regarding Castro. This advertisement, which defends Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba for the Cuban Revolutionist, reflects a list of sponsors including Julian Mayfield.

Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) sponsored advertisement in 4/21/61 issue of "New York Times" which denounced U. S. support of anti-Castro invasion forces. During anniversary banquet of FPCC, held 4/28/61 at Brass Rail Restaurant in New York City (attended by some 500 persons), it was announced that this advertisement had been coauthored by Julian Mayfield and Warren Miller. At request of Bureau, New York Office has now submitted summaries of available public source subversive data concerning Miller and Mayfield.

Regarding Miller, he has written a number of articles in the publication "Masses and Mainstream" (cited in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities 1/2/57 as successor to "New Masses," a communist magazine). Specifically, articles, book reviews, or short stories by Miller appeared in the December, 1948, issue of "Masses and Mainstream," each of the 12 monthly issues of this publication in 1949, and in the February, 1950; March, 1950; August, 1952; December, 1952; and June, 1953, issues. According to advertisement in "Daily Worker" issue of 2/6/49, Miller, described as film critic for "Masses and Mainstream," was listed as speaker at a forum to be sponsored by Youth Cultural Section of Communist Party on evening of 2/6/49. Article in 8/19/53 issue of "Daily Worker" reported that Miller had received an award for a short story which had appeared in "Masses and Mainstream" during the "International Cultural Competitions" held during the Fourth World Youth Festival held in Bucharest, Rumania.

Concerning Mayfield, article in 8/2/51 issue of "Daily Worker" identified him as Chairman of Subcommittee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro and the Arts, New York City, (Committee for the Negro and the Arts has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450). "Daily Worker" issue of 7/1/53 carried advertisement which listed Mayfield as a staff leader on the Camp Unity Interracial Gala Program during July, 1953,

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," 1/2/53, cites Camp Unity of Wingdale, New York, as a "notorious Communist rendezvous"). The 2/11/53 issue of "Daily Worker" carried article reporting that Mayfield had appeared in a play under auspices of Civil Rights Congress (designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450). It is noted that Mayfield was one of original sponsors of FPCC listed in this group's advertisement in 4/6/60 issue of "New York Times."

SECURITY MATTER - C

Reur FD-122 dated 10-20-61 recommending that the Security Index card in captioned case be tabbed "Pro-Cuban."

The Bureau is of the opinion that the information developed to date regarding the subject's activities in Pro-Cuban organizations is insufficient to justify the tabbing of the Security Index card "Pro-Cuban." In this connection, it is noted that the only information developed concerning Mayfield's support of the Pro-Cuban regime has been his name being listed as one of the co-authors of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee advertisement in the 4-21-61 edition of the "New York Times."

If additional facts are developed that would justify the tabbing of the Security Index card in this case "Pro-Cuban," you should resubmit your recommendation.

NOTE: Subject is on the Security Index. Subject is alleged to have driven the card for Robert Franklin Williams when he fled from Monroe, North Carolina, on 8-27-61 after an incident involving a civil rights matter.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the FPCC. This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times."

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ON GUARD COMMITTEE FOR FREEDOM (OGCFF)

A confidential source advised on February 15, 1961, that the "On Guard Committee for Freedom" (OGCFF) was formed on February 14, 1961, in the Harlem section of New York City. Its purpose was to avenge the death of PATRICE LUMUMBA and the fathers and mothers of slaves killed in the past.

"The New York Times", issue of March 1, 1961, on page twenty-five, commented that CALVIN L. HICKS, a newspaper writer, who is editor of a six-page newspaper, is associated with the OGCFF. The tabloid edited by him has favored the LUMUMBA and CASTRO regimes and has called on President KENNEDY to aid "Afro-American" families in Tennessee while asserting the U.S. was subsidizing Cubans in Florida.

A second confidential source on February 29, 1956, furnished information that [REDACTED] was at that time a member of a Communist Party cell in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The May, 1961 edition of "On Guard," official organ of the OGCFF, on page two, stated that the purpose of the OGCFF was "to act as an educational and action organization. To inspire our people to united mass action on issues affecting their rights and opportunities. To expose those agents and agencies representative of government who violate those principles and documents upon which this country was founded." The above editorial contained in part, "In order to implement the above-mentioned principles, OGCFF shall advocate and make use of the picket line, the boycott, the petition forums and mass circulation of 'On Guard', our monthly newspaper."

Monroe Defense Committee

NY T-4 advised on October 9, 1961, that a meeting of the Monroe Defense Committee was held at the Hotel Diplomat, 108 West 43rd Street, New York City, on October 5, 1961. One of the speakers, according to the informant, was [redacted] [redacted] who could not attend the meeting. [redacted] read the majority of a statement from the subject to the assembled group. The subject's statement claimed that the real leaders of the white trouble makers were local and state officials, in addition to Federal officials. The subject had a great deal of difficulty in getting stories out of Monroe through the press during the disturbance in late August. The subject in his statement said that he had contacted the editor of a publication to get a story off the news wires from the Associated Press, but the Associated Press would not put it over the wires. The only way that the Associated Press would send it, would be by United States Mail. The subject's statement further explained that all newspaper wires had put an iron curtain around Monroe and Charlotte during the disturbances.

NY T-5 advised on November 15, 1961, that the Monroe Defense Committee was allegedly supported chiefly by the CP. The subject was mentioned as being one of the leaders of the Monroe Defense Committee.

Other Information Regarding Monroe Incident

NY T-6 advised on October 30, 1961, that at a meeting of the Harlem Regional CP Committee held on October 25, 1961, one of the individuals present at the meeting stated that it was her understanding that the subject was in hiding from the law because of his activities with [redacted]. She also said that she had heard that the subject was more responsible than [redacted] for what had happened.

II. AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

Miscellaneous Information

Affiliation with ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS And Connection With Racial Incident Which Occurred in Monroe, North Carolina, August 27, 1961

On December 2, 1960, NY T-3, advised that ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS stated that he had been in touch with the subject and was receiving excellent cooperation from him.

The December 10, 1960, issue of "The Crusader", a weekly news letter formerly published by ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS, Monroe, North Carolina, reflected in an article on page 6, Volume 2, Number 19, that the subject had visited Monroe, North Carolina, on a mercy trip bringing clothing to the needy.

On July 3, 1961, NY T-3 advised that the subject had arrived in Monroe, North Carolina, and was visiting ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS, 410 Boyte Street, Monroe, North Carolina.

NY 100-120145

On August 30, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted], Bronx, New York, advised SAS [redacted] and [redacted], that he arrived in Monroe, North Carolina, in the capacity of a "Freedom Rider" on Thursday, August 17, 1961. [redacted] advised that the subject arrived in Monroe, North Carolina, August 2, 1961, driving a late model red Nash Rambler, and the subject was in the company of [redacted]. [redacted] related that on August 26, 1961, he paid the subject $10.00 for a ride from Monroe,
North Carolina, to New York City, on Sunday afternoon, August 27, 1961. However, a race riot broke out in Monroe, late Sunday afternoon, on the latter date, and after the riot, MAYFIELD and his automobile had disappeared along with ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS, WILLIAMS' family, and [redacted] [redacted].

On August 30, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted], North Carolina, advised SAS [redacted] and [redacted], that during the latter part of August, 1961, the subject stayed at his residence for approximately one week. [redacted] stated that the subject was a writer or publisher in New York City, and was engaged in picketing of the Monroe, North Carolina Court House prior to the race riot which occurred on August 27, 1961.

On September 2, 1961, [redacted] furnished a voluntary signed statement to SAS [redacted] and [redacted]. In this statement, [redacted] related that on Sunday, August 27, 1961, he accompanied the subject, in the subject's automobile to the Union County Court House area to pick up some of the "Freedom Riders". While in the square, a race riot broke out and they returned to ROBERT WILLIAMS' residence. [redacted] stated that later in the evening, the subject came to his residence driving his automobile. After dinner, [redacted] and the subject, who was armed with a rifle, laid down in [redacted] yard to repel possible white invaders. [redacted] related that approximately one half hour later, ROBERT WILLIAMS, [redacted], and [redacted], ran into his yard. After a short conversation with the subject, WILLIAMS and his family and [redacted] all got into the subject's automobile and left Monroe.

NY 100-120145

On April 10, 1950, NY T-7 advised that ROBERT F. WILLIAMS attended a CP meeting which was held in the Headquarters Office of the CP, USA, District 22, Room 14, Brown Building, Charleston, West Virginia, in April, 1950. According to the informant, WILLIAMS, who was a student at the time at West Virginia State College, Institute, West Virginia, was teaching Communism to other students at the school and claimed that he had taken Communist leaflets and newspapers and placed them in various places at the school so other students would find them.

On August 28, 1961, an authorized complaint was filed before United States Commissioner ROBERT L. SCOTT, Western District of North Carolina, Charlotte, North Carolina, by SA [redacted], charging ROBERT WILLIAMS with Unlawful Flight To Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnapping, in violation of Title 18, Section 1073, United States Code, in that WILLIAMS fled the State of North Carolina, to avoid prosecution for the crime of kidnapping.

BOOKS

A novel about integration

AFTER TWO excellent novels — The Hit and The Long Night — Julian Mayfield has written a third work of major power and dimension, The Grand Parade.^{*} Given a prodigious storytelling talent plus a theme as immediate as today's headlines and a sizzling exposure of sin and corruption in what might be Any City, U.S.A., how can the book fail to be alive and absorbing? The city, Gainesboro, is a "border" town (actually, it might be Montgomery, Little Rock, New Orleans and a bit of Harlem rolled into one), and the struggle for school integration is the heart of the book and the center around which all its characters are polarized.

Mayfield concentrates so much into his canvas that it becomes an attempt to depict an entire social system at a time of upheaval. He is the first, I believe, to tell the story of what happens behind the scenes in a town when a mortal struggle for integration is taking place. The whole complex range of relationships is set forth on many levels in both Negro and white communities. Politicians, racketeers, prostitutes, gamblers, an ex-Communist and a complement of FBI men — as well as liberals whose guts are never equal to their protestations, and nice people who only ask to be left alone to pursue the split-level American dream.

IF THE STORY can be said to center on any two of the characters, they would be Douglas Taylor, the liberal mayor, and Randolph Banks, Negro councilman — both inoffensive yet ambitious men caught in a clash of forces too big for them. Taylor wants to become a U.S. Senator so badly that he exposes the skulduggery of the men who put him into power. In retaliation, they ignite the fires of a race war because they think it will block his re-election. Banks — genial, easygoing, married to a genteel Boston girl, father of two sons, owner of a hard-won four-bedroom brick house in a pleasant neighborhood — lives under the shadow of two threats to his political tenure: his brother Lonnie, an ex-Communist who re-dearly as a barracuda; smooth, silver-haired, silver-tongued, he transforms the embattled mothers of the town and the rabble without a cause into a howling, bloodthirsty mob.

FOR EVERY WHITE sinner in the town there is a Negro counterpart. The author writes with stripped-down, almost photographic power and naked frankness. Almost all of his characters harbor at least one awful skeleton; almost all are driven by the desire for political power, for money, for the safe berth and for social status. But the pulse of Mayfield's own commitment to justice and decency can always be felt amid his regret that his Negro brothers must emulate the shoddy patterns of the society of which they are a disinherited part.

Sometimes the book seems a little frightening in its expertise; a kind of O'Hara professionalism and sensationalism creep in here and there; and the effort to encompass the lives of so many people robs some of them of their depth, particularly the women. Disturbing, too, is the somewhat cynical view of left-wing groups and their contribution to the fight for equal rights, as well as Mayfield's failure to make enough note of the power and courage of the Negro struggle in the South right now, a struggle carried out not without the participation of some white friends.

EVENING NEWS March 29 and 30 published first two of series articles by US Negro writer Julian Mayfield on trial Mrs. Mae Mallory that purportedly followed Monroe North Carolina race disturbances last August. In questionable, inflammatory article Mayfield says, "Mrs. Mallory fighting for life in Cleveland after Governor Ohio yielded to pressures white supremacists, North Carolina and ordered Mallory extradited to that state to stand trial on fallacious charge kidnapping that grew out of Monroe race riots last August." Article also reports that Robert F. Williams, former Monroe President NAACP, "now political exile in revolutionary Cuba, fugitive from southern justice, sought by US on same charge".

In view further upcoming articles this subject and anticipated unfavorable reaction, we require soonest full background information author Mayfield who purportedly was "only reporter present at Monroe race riots last August," and full background information on trial Mrs. Mae Mallory, including her present status.

Nomination for Julian Mayfield

By George Breitman

DETROIT — If I had the authority to give an award for the best article of 1961, I think I would give it to "Challenge to Negro Leadership — The Case of Robert Williams" by Julian Mayfield, which appeared in the magazine Commentary in April 1961.

Without any disrespect for The Militant, which printed many fine articles too, Mayfield's was in my opinion unrivaled among those I read last year for excellence of style and serious handling of an important theme.

In it Mayfield, author of three novels, told the story of Robert F. Williams and the movement he led in Monroe, N.C. That alone would make it worth reading, because it is a dramatic story. But Mayfield also related Williams and Monroe to their national background, showing that they represented the emergence of a new young leadership offering a serious challenge to the middle-class legalistic and pacifist spokesmen in the struggle for Negro equality.

For several months after Mayfield's article appeared I kept telling everyone who would listen that it was itself an important event in that struggle, and that no one could consider himself fully informed about current moods and trends in the Negro movement until he had read it.

After a few months, however, Commentary informed me that it had run out of the reprints it had prepared of the article and that the April 1961 issue was all sold out.

I then tried to get some people in Detroit to raise money and get permission from the author and magazine to reprint it as a pamphlet and help give it further national circulation. For various reasons this fell through.

So I am now happy to report that I have just learned of the republication of the Mayfield article in a readily accessible and inexpensive form.

A few months ago Ballantine Books, which in recent years has published many important paperback books on civil liberties, peace and Cuba, put out a book called The Nonconformers — Articles of Dissent, edited by David Evanier and Stanley Silverzweig.

This is a collection of articles from various periodicals, mostly liberal, in 1960 and 1961. The very first article in the book, and the longest, is Mayfield's.

So the word should be spread, especially among those who have become interested in Monroe and Williams because of the frame-up "kidnap" trial involving them that is scheduled to take place this month. It's available in most bookshops that carry big paperback collections.

The Mayfield article by itself is worth the 50¢ this book costs. As a bonus, readers will find some other good ones among the 29 additional articles included.

This information indicated that JULIAN MAYFIELD is a U.S. citizen of the Negro race, who at the present time is serving as a Special Correspondent in the Republic of Ghana, Africa, and is writing articles for the EVENING NEWS, Accra, Ghana.

This information further indicated that MAYFIELD is fully in sympathy with the Cuban Revolutionary Government and that he has done an excellent job in making favorable publicity in Africa concerning the Cuban revolution, and pointing out to the Africans the difficulties that the Negroes have to endure in the United States.

This information further indicated that MAYFIELD is not using his name in connection with the articles he is writing for the EVENING NEWS, but describes himself as an Anonymous Special Correspondent. It is further pointed out that MAYFIELD, in his articles, is reviewing the unfair treatment meted out to WILLIAM WORTHY, Jr. by the United States government, and that WORTHY is the first American citizen to stand trial for "reentering the land of his birth illegally." The information further indicated that this charge, which has been placed against

(U) It was also pointed out that WORTHY had the wrath of the United States authorities brought down upon him because he was critical of J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the FBI, and that MAYFIELD, in his articles concerning WORTHY, by necessity has also been critical of the FBI. It is for this reason that MAYFIELD is not using his name in connection with his articles for the EVENING NEWS, inasmuch as he fears reprisals by the FBI when he returns to the United States, and that he may be "a second WILLIAM WORTHY." (S)

(U) It was also stated that MAYFIELD has pointed out that even though the United States would be successful in invading Cuba, which apparently it is planning at this time, imperialism is bound to be doomed inasmuch as the Cuban Revolution has left its imprint upon the downtrodden people of Latin America, and has shown the way for their liberation. (S)

Indices of the Miami Office contain no identifying data concerning JULIAN MAYFIELD. Inasmuch as the Miami Office has no background information concerning MAYFIELD, the Miami Office is opening a new 105 case on MAYFIELD, and this case will be maintained in a pending status pending receipt of results of investigation conducted by the New York Office.

The New York Office is requested to search its indices and other logical sources identifying MAYFIELD, and furnish to the Miami Office and the Bureau all information which previously has not been furnished.

JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD, subject of NY 100-120145, is being recommended for inclusion in "Section A" of the Reserve Index of the New York Office in view of his employment as a free-lance writer, and in view of his reported CP sympathies, and possible CP membership as late as 1955.

The "Daily Worker" issue of 2/5/51, on page 8, column 4, contained an article which states that JULIAN MAYFIELD was one of a group of actors who collected money to send representatives to Washington, D.C., to mourn four members of the "Martinsville Seven" who had been executed in Virginia.

The "Daily Worker" is a former East coast daily Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

The "Daily Worker" issue of 8/2/51, page 7, column 3, contained an article which identified JULIAN MAYFIELD as Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York City.

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on 1/30/52, that an address by JULIAN MAYFIELD, actor, was made up and sent out by the New York Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

The "Daily Worker" issue of 2/9/53, on page 6, column 2, under the heading "What's On" contained information to the effect that JULIAN MAYFIELD was to direct the play, "The Big Deal" for "fund raising". The term "fund raising" was not further identified or described.

The "Daily Worker" issue of February 11, 1953, on page 7, column 1, contained an article which related that JULIAN MAYFIELD appeared in a play under the auspices of the Civil Rights Congress (CRC).

Evidence of CP Sympathies

In April, 1962, NY T-5 furnished information reflecting that JOHN HENRICK CLARKE communicated with JULIAN MAYFIELD [redacted] Accra, Ghana, during February, 1962. CLARKE expressed his appreciation for papers and pamphlets which MAYFIELD had sent him from Ghana. He stated that "Freedomways" is planning a special issue on Africa for the end of the year, and that MAYFIELD was being appointed their scout in Ghana to insure that they will receive some worthwhile contributions from Ghana. CLARKE expressed the hope that MAYFIELD will give SHIRLEY whatever help is necessary in securing this material and added that fifty copies of "Freedomways" would be sent by air express soon. (S)

The same source has furnished information reflecting that JOHN HENRICK CLARKE is a member of the staff of "Freedomways". (S) N.Y.

APPENDIX

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the Secretary of State, New York State Department of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1962, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "a Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

Author Julian Mayfield in Plea To Ohio Gov. in Mallory Case

[The following is an open letter to Governor James A. Rhodes of Ohio from novelist Julian Mayfield who for the past year and a half has been working in Ghana. The open letter appeared in the Ghanian Times, published in Accra, capital of Ghana. Mr. Mayfield has written essays and reports on the Afro-American struggle and is the author of three novels, The Hit, The Long Night and The Grand Parade.]

Like many thousands of others I am writing you to express my concern for the plight of Mrs. Mae Mallory, whose life quite literally rests in your hands.

Unlike most of those who have written to you, I was present at the events which led to the charges against Mrs. Mallory. As a novelist and journalist I was there to cover the story for the York, Pa., Gazette and Daily.

I know that as Governor it is not your business to consider evidence. But the Governor is also a human being who, as leader of a state with great, liberal traditions, will not lightly send the mother of two children to her death, which is what Mrs. Mallory's extradition to North Carolina would mean.

So allow me, as briefly as possible, to set forth the facts as I know them.

The kidnapping for which Mrs. Mallory has been indicted never, in fact, occurred. At the height of the rioting, I saw the car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Stegall turn into North Boyte Street where Afro-American leader Robert F. Williams lived.

A crowd of angry Negroes surged around the car and ordered the couple to get out.

Several people in the crowd identified Mr. Stegall as a member of the local Ku Klux Klan. Neither Mrs. Mallory nor Mr. Williams was in that crowd.

Mae Mallory

Entered Yard

The crowd forced the Stegalls to walk to Williams' yard a few steps away. At this time Mrs. Mallory and Williams came out from the house onto his front porch.

The crowd began to shout to Williams that they wanted to kill the Stegalls because they were under the impression that several Afro-Americans had been shot and beaten in town. The Stegalls protested that they knew nothing about the rioting in town, that they were merely out for a Sunday drive.

At just that moment a small private airplane flew low overhead, and several of the men fired their rifles at it.

This clearly frightened Mrs. Stegall who said that if Williams would let her and her husband enter his home, she would telephone Police Chief Mauney and ask him to release the Afro-Americans in jail.

She and Mr. Stegall were afraid to go back through the crowd to their car, and they took sanctuary in Williams' home voluntarily.

Mrs. Mallory Not Involved

Throughout this entire episode Mrs. Mallory played no part. She had only been in the town six days as a guest of the Williams, and had no influence in the community. My statement is partially borne out by Mrs. Stegall herself who told a Charlotte newspaper the next day that Williams had saved her life.

The Governor of North Carolina assured your predecessor, Mr. DeSalle, that Mrs. Mallory would receive a fair trial. On what basis could he have given such an assurance.

On Aug. 27, 1961, the Saturday before the alleged kidnapping occurred, Robert Williams attempted to telephone Governor Sanford who was attending a conference in Hawaii.

Williams wanted to ask the Governor to intervene in Monroe where the law had broken down and the police were parading with the Ku Klux Klan.

He succeeded in reaching the Governor's aide, and described the scene to him. I heard the aide laugh and ask: "Williams, aren't you dead yet?"

There, in a nutshell, Governor Rhodes, was and is the attitude of the state of North Carolina toward her Afro-Americans. It is Robert Williams the white supremacists want, but since they can't reach Williams, any of his supporters will do.

Kissing Case

I would remind you also that Monroe is the town where two Afro-American boys, 7 and 7 years old, were imprisoned in 1958 on a charge of "assault with intent to commit rape on a white female" because one of them kissed, or was kissed by, a white girl playmate, age 7.

They were held incommunicado for six days, and then in a closed hearing — where they were not even represented by their mothers, much less by counsel — were sentenced to indefinite terms in a reform school. That was their fair trial.

Mrs. Mallory's case has been well-publicized here in West Africa where it is hoped that the proud state of Ohio will not sully her record by cooperating with the ugly Americans in North Carolina.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INC.

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1963, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by James Jackson, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

In 1950, he denounced American intervention in Korea. In 1952, he participated in an affair held to demonstrate dissatisfaction in the handling of the prisoner of war issue and to call for a truce in Korea. In 1952, he also presented a play against "Witch Hunting."

The subject [redacted]

[redacted] While in Puerto Rico, in September, 1955, the subject and [redacted] were visited by three known members of the Puerto Rican Communist Party (CP).

On July 30, 1960, the subject and [redacted] arrived in Puerto Rico from Havana, Cuba.

On April 28, 1961, at the first anniversary dinner for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), a Julian Mayfield was introduced from the floor as a co-author of an advertisement for the FPCC which appeared in the April 21, 1961 edition of the "New York Times" newspaper.

A characterization of the FPCC is attached.

In 1961, the subject was a strong supporter of Robert Williams of Monroe, North Carolina, who had stated that he would fight with guns, if necessary, to secure justice (for Negroes).

On August 21, 1961, Robert Franklin Williams and his associates, during a race riot, kidnaped at gun point two white persons in Monroe, North Carolina and held them as hostages at his (Williams') residence for approximately two hours before releasing them.

A Federal warrant was issued on August 28, 1961, at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging Williams with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for kidnaping.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "TED" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source advised on April 9, 1963, that on April 7, 1963, at a meeting of the District Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) of New England, held in Boston, Massachusetts, HERBERT APTHEKER stated he was developing an organization called American Institute For Marxist Studies (AIMS), which would eventually legalize the CP. He stated AIMS would publish literature on History, Science, Physics, Archeology and other subjects which would be put out quarterly with various supplements.

A second source advised in December, 1959, that HERBERT APTHEKER was elected to the National Committee, CP, USA, at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA, held in December, 1959.

A third source advised on June 7, 1963, that on June 3, 1963, HERBERT APTHEKER spoke at the CP, USA, New York District Board meeting concerning AIMS. APTHEKER stated that AIMS would unite and strengthen the CP although the CP would not be connected with it. He stated AIMS was being formed to operate within the scope of the MC CARRAN and SMITH Acts and would legally bring Marxist material and opinions to the attention of American scholars and the general public.

A fourth source advised on May 15, 1964, that, as of that date, AIMS was located on the fifth floor west at 20 East 30th Street, New York City, New York.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

~~APPENDIX~~2.FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the CASTRO network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-CASTRO FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-CASTRO street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-CASTRO American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by CASTRO's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin, LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

~~APPENDIX~~1.FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1964, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

Black American in Africa; 'Congo is a Lesson for the Apologists'

In the world-wide struggle of darker races to escape a history of white supremacist oppression and exploitation, this "backward glance" by an American-born Negro, Julian Mayfield, now living in Ghana is especially timely. Mayfield, playwright and author, wrote this article for publication in the Ghanaian Times, Nov. 25, 1964, under the headline: CONGO — A LESSON FOR THE APOLOGISTS. By Julian Mayfield

The world has just witnessed a dramatic demonstration of the determination of world imperialism to keep the vast majority of mankind oppressed under its grinding heel.

Belgium troops were quartered by Africa's "friends," Mr. Wilson's Labor Party, on the British-controlled island of Ascension. United States aircraft transported these troops to Stanleyville, ostensibly to liberate white hostages, but clearly, the objective was to crush the nationalist opposition to the U.S. running-dog regime.

There is a type of African, usually educated in England or North America, who finds it uncomfortable and embarrassing to regard the United States as the capital of world imperialism.

After all, the average American sent out to Africa is a nice guy. He lays a good dinner, gives wonderful parties and serves good (imported) liquor. This American will even lend you a few pounds near the end of the month.

Neither he (nor his wife) is as reserved or snobbish as the familiar wicked old British colonialist, and phrases like "freedom" and "equality" come easily to his lips.

'DANGEROUS African'

This type of African is more dangerous to the African Revolution than any C.I.A. agent, black or white.

The American who rants about "the free world," "the rights of man" and "the liberty of the individual" knows in his teeth that he is lying. But this particular African, who is usually secure because of his education and his job, believes implicitly in that lie.

During his brief tour of the U.S. he wined and dined in some fine white homes, and he will fight to the death anyone who purports to tell him that his recent hosts are the world's greatest carriers of the neo-colonialist mentality.

Like Sir Alec Douglas-Home, the word "neo-colonialism" is not in his vocabulary.

But what shall they say now, these people who have bought the beautiful American image, lock, stock and barrel? Only yesteryear Moise Tshombe was the symbol of all that is hateful and detestible in human society.

'Imperialist Lackey'

Even in America he was regarded as liar, thief, traitor, imperialist lackey and co-murderer of the greatest statesman-patriot the Congo has produced.

Who, reading these words, thought he would live long enough to see this same Tshombe crowned Prime Minister of the Congo? Who dreamed that the United States would so nakedly expose itself as to send thousands of military "advisers," Cuban counter-revolutionary mercenaries, and devastating weapons of modern warfare to his aid, all supposedly in defense of U.S. interests?

Who imagined that the "free" press of "free" England and the U.S., themselves so contemptuous of Uncle Tom Moise, would so suddenly and unashamedly begin to tout the Katangese puppet as the only popular figure in the Congo, "the only one who can bring peace to that troubled country."

"Old Switcheroo"

In American parlance this is called "the grand old switcheroo," but what does it matter so long as a gullible American public believes it, and a divided Africa tolerates it?

Washington claims that the latest action has been taken for "humanitarian not military" reasons.

That is, U.S. military airplanes have transported several battalions of Belgians to Stanleyville for the sole purpose of saving the lives of about 700 whites.

This action was taking place while the Kenyan leader, Mr. Kenyatta, on behalf of the OAU conciliation committee, was conferring in Nairobi with the Congolese nationalist leader, Mr. Thomas Kanza, about the fate of the same expatriates, with the full participation of the United States government.

The strike by the United States, Belgium and the Labor government of Great Britain can be viewed as nothing less than a demonstration of contempt for the OAU and all the African peoples.

It is contempt bordering on the ridiculous to expect any reasonable person to accept the U.S. "humanitarian, not military" explanation.

"Gross Intervention"

To land, foreign troops in the capital city of the Congolese nationalist government at this time, or any time, is gross intervention by the U.S. in the Congo Civil War.

It is as if British ships had bombarded New York city (as it was almost inclined to do) during the American civil war (1861-65).

It is to serve notice that wherever there is one American, Belgian or British citizen, these powerful governments reserve the right to throw their military might into a domestic situation. Also U.S. insistence that it is concerned with the treatment of prisoners of war under a Geneva convention should also fall on suspicious, if not deaf, ears.

South Vietnamese Rangers, under the complete direction of the U.S. government, were seen in an AP photograph in a 9th November issue of NEWSWEEK magazine, extracting information from a North Vietnamese war prisoner by pushing a dagger into his belly.

Where was the concern of the U.S. government for the Geneva convention then? Or is such sensitivity reserved only for white persons under danger?

ReSJairtel 5/19/67 with copies for Mobile and the Washington Field Office.

For the information of Mobile and WFO, Julian Hudson Mayfield is included in Reserve Index-A rather than the Security Index as set forth on page two of referenced airtel. In addition, lead for Washington Field appears to pertain to inquiry regarding the presence of Julian Hudson Mayfield in Washington, D. C., rather than the presence of the subject as indicated on page two of referenced airtel, since there is no indication in referenced airtel that subject is not residing in Puerto Rico.

San Juan should score error of form to personnel responsible.

DECLASSIFIED BY SP5HST

Re WFO letter to the Bureau, 7/20/72; Alexandria letter to New York, 7/17/72; Bureau O-7s to New York, 4/26/72 and 4/12/72.

A brief review of the chronology of events concerning efforts to establish subject's residence and employment are as follows:

On 3/21/72, [redacted] Spencer, New York (subject owns a farm at South Hill Road, RD 2, Spencer, New York, which he calls Chuaka Farm) advised that after a brief stay at his farm, subject on 10/28/71, furnished a change of address to 2834 27th Street, NE, Washington, D.C. (Passport records as of 9/66 reflect subject's parents as HUDSON/MAYFIELD, born 6/3/06, and ANNIE MAY/PRINCE, born 4/16/06, then residing at 2834 27th Street NE, Washington, D.C.)

Through a pretext MRS HUDSON MAYFIELD 5/24/72, to home of HUDSON MAYFIELD, 2834 27th Street NE, Washington, D.C., 529-4244, it was determined that JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD receives mail at this address but does not reside there.

Bureau O-7 to Albany and Caracas and New York, 4/12/72, requested Caracas to furnish Bureau with results of their inquiry. By letter dated 1/31/72, Legat, Caracas had requested a name check re JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD, born 6/6/28, Greer, South Carolina. This request was occasioned by an inquiry by the US Embassy, Georgetown, Guyana, further identifying MAYFIELD as a Negro journalist employed with the Guyana Ministry of Information and residing in Georgetown, Guyana.

Bureau O-7, 4/26/72, rescinded instructions relative to changing Origin to Albany pending WFO's verification of subject's residence.

From a review of the above it would appear subject is probably residing in Georgetown, Guyana, and the change of address to the Washington, D.C. address was merely for the forwarding of mail through subject's parents.

The Bureau is requested to furnish New York with results of Caracas inquiry as set forth in Bureau O-7 to Caracas, 4/12/72.

WFO should hold further investigation in abeyance pending receipt of results of Caracas inquiry.
